1	Our consortium partner is bound by confidentiality agreements with its corporate clients. Consequently, when preparing the project references all necessary information (project value, dates, project description, type of services provided) with the exception of the client name can be provided. As these references are mostly qualifying, we are very keen to include them in our EoI in order to get shortlisted. While we are aware of the EC's secrecy policy regarding references submitted by applicants, we nevertheless kindly ask you to confirm that these references will be taken into account during the evaluation of our Expression of Interest.	In the application submission form, the applicants are requested to submit information in response to their economic, financial, professional and technical capacity according to the selection criteria specified in the procurement notice. The information provided should be sufficient to allow the evaluation committee to express a pertinent opinion on the reference of the candidate. For service procurement procedures, the successful tenderers have to supply proof documents to support the information submitted in the application form before the award of the contract.
